2 · Mediation Explained

HEADER · 30 words

Mediation, in plain words

A guided conversation where both sides work toward an agreement they choose. It suits some disputes, not all.

COURT VS MEDIATION · same 4 rows as Home

Time · Cost · Control · Privacy

Cautious wording ("can", "often", "usually"). Add sources if figures are used later.

WHERE ARE YOU? · 4 short sections, 80 words each (anchor links from Home)

Thinking of filing
What else you could try first.

Notice received
Understand your options before replying.

Already in court
Whether talking could still help.

Stuck for years
A different way forward.

Each ends with the form button. No legal advice.

HOW IT WORKS · 4 steps

1. You share your side
2. The other side is invited
3. A mediator guides the talk
4. You agree, in writing

WHEN MEDIATION MAY NOT SUIT · honest box

If the other side won't take part, or where there is violence, fraud or a criminal matter.

FAQ · 5

Is an agreement legally binding?

What if the other side refuses?

Who is the mediator?

Is it confidential?

What does it cost?

CTA

Explore your options

---

3 · What UnLitigate Does

HEADER · 25 words

Three parts, one aim

Make mediation something people think of first. Here is what is live and what is coming.

3 PARTS + STATUS LABELS

Live now

Awareness and enquiries
Reels, posts, this site. 40 words.

Pilot starting [date]

Supervised student mediators
Training and supervision. 40 words.

Being built

Referral partnerships
University mediation centres. 40 words.

MAP (your idea, moved here from Home)

Dot map of India. Pins: Bhubaneswar and Pune ("This is where we are"). Soft grey dots: "People who may be about to give up on a dispute."

Must read as illustration. Caption: "Illustrative. Not data about real people or places." No numbers on the map.

SAFEGUARDS · key for centres and lawyers

Supervisor: [registered mediator / legal aid clinic, to confirm]

We take: suitable business, family and property disputes

We don't take: violence, fraud, criminal matters

Settlements: written down and signed by both sides

Confidentiality and consent in 2 lines

WHY NOW

Mediation Act 2023. Mediation Council of India set up Aug 2026. We want to work alongside it.

Verify wording. "Work alongside" only once true.

CTA

Explore your options

---

4 · About Us

HEADER · 25 words

Why we started

A student-led, non-commercial initiative backed by Students for Liberty.

STORY 1 · ANUSHKA · 120 words

PHOTO

The police station. The officer's question, being in legal uniform, what she researched next, the decision to build UnLitigate.

STORY 2 · MADHUR · 120 words

PHOTO

[Madhur's own reason, in his words.]

STORY 3 · PRAKHAR · 120 words

PHOTO

[Why he joined after the project began.]

Three reasons from three people replace testimonials for now. Real moments only.

BENCH MOTIF DIVIDER

●—●

TEAM · photo + 30-word bio

Anushka Jena
Co-founder · Bhubaneswar operations

Madhur [surname]
Co-founder · Pune operations

Prakhar [surname]
Core Team · Partnerships and Outreach

SUPPORTERS

Students for Liberty logo · supervisor [to confirm]

CTA

Explore your options

---

5 · Get in Touch

HEADER · 20 words

Tell us what's happening

Two minutes. Plain words. You choose what to share.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

1. You fill a short form
2. We read it and reply
3. We explain your options, including whether mediation may suit you

MAIN BUTTON

Open the form →

Links to the Google Form (new tab). Privacy note lives inside the form. Add above the button: "Please don't share ID or bank details."

OTHER WAYS

Email: [contact email]

Instagram · LinkedIn

FOOTER

General information about mediation, not legal advice. We use simple analytics.